His record gave him sixth place, Eayrs of Columbus being fifth with nine wins and four defeats.

Louisville and St. Paul tied for team fielding honors with 964 each, Milwaukee's champions ranking third with 960. and lost determines them, went to Fiene

WOOLMEN WILL SEE CLEVER LADS BOX

(Continued from Preceding Page.) also said that Gallant was a great crowd pleaser, even surpassing Baldwin in this respect, which is saying a great deal, as Baldwin was one of the most popular lads that ever stepped into a ring. He certainly pleased the public every time he boxed here and the fans will be glad of an oppertunity to watch another one like him.

Hogan is well known in Salt Lake, having boxed here before he became famous. He is one of the most sensational boxers in the game, second perhaps only to Joe Rivers, the Mexican He is a battler who mixes matters from gong to gong and is dangerous at all times.

The promoters are hanging up the largest purse that has ever been offered for a boxing contest in this part of the country, and as there is a substantial winner's and loser's end there is sure to be something doing from the time they step through the ropes until the bout is over.

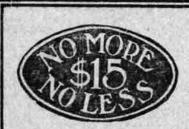

they step through the ropes until the bout is over.

It has been a long time since the local fans have had an opportunity of witnessing a really high-class boxing contest and the news that these two boys have been matched should please the sport-loving public.

The bout will be held on the evening of January 16, and is being put on as a special feature to cutertain the visiting delegates to the woolgrowers' meeting.

JOHNSON'S BOUT WITH MORAN IS POSTPONED

Special Cable to The Tribune.

PARIS, Dec. 20.—The injury sustained his arm in by Jack Johnson, the negro heavyweight, in his hout with "Battling" Jim Johnson will cause a postponement of the January 19.

former's fight with Frank Moran of Pitts-burg until March or April.

The poor battle put up by the cham-pion was the cause of much dissatiafac-tion. This was appeased somewhat by the announcement that Jack had broken his arm in the second round of the con-last.

KNOCK-OUT LEAVES FEW ILL EFFECTS

"You know farmers nowadays are not like those of the past. They ride in their automobiles, while the poor suckers do the work. I intend to have an automobile and become a real gen tieman farmer. Then it will be goodby to the footlights forever."

Wolgast, like many other fighters, caunot be convinced that he has gone back to any extent, although he admitted that the operation he underwent for appendicitis, which caused his for appendicitis, which caused his match with Freddie Welsh to be called off, cost him $50,000. When one stops to think that only a few years ago Wolgast was willing to fight in pre-liminaries for a few of Lucle Sam's silver eart whoels, it seems like a fairy dream to class him now with the big gups of finance. Of course, he is not a multi-millionaire yet, but he expects to be some day. to be some day.

Heavyweight Doings.

At last we are to have a real championship battle between the white hopes, even though they are not classed championship battle between the white hopes, even though they are not classed as high as some we have had in the past. On New Year's afternoon at San Francisco "Gunboat" Smith, the giant-killer, and Arthur Pelky, the Canadian heavyweight, who is acknowledged champion of all white "hopes through his defeat of Luther McCarty—and which had such a sad ending—will meet in a contest of twenty rounds to settle the title question. Pelky has not met so many of the hopes as Smith, but he stands on his reputation gained by his defeat of McCarty. He will have quite an advantage in weight over Smith, but not nearly so much as Carl Morris had when they met in New York last fall.

Pelky never was thought a world-heater until Tommy Burns took hold of him. However, the ex-champion is confident that he has a man who will be able to hold his own against all comers, and he feels sure Pelky will stop "Gunboat" within twelve rounds. If he can turn the trick then he will prove himself a real fighter, for the "Gunboat" man can certainly fight some.

May Meet Carpentier.

There is talk of matching the winner with Georges Carpentier, the French champion, who tumbled Bombardier Wells over for the count in two rounds ten days ago, but I doubt whether the manager of the Frenchman will fall for a match of that kind. Carpentier is a great young fighter, but he weighs at hest about 170 pounds, and cannot afford to give away twenty to forty pounds to men like Smith and Pelky. Such a match would be interesting, however, as it would really be for the world is championship title among white men—Carpentier holding the championmen—Carpentier holding the champion-ship of Europe at the present time. And while these interesting events are on it is probable that Jack Johnson, the negro champion, will arrange a match with Frank Moran, the Pittsburg heavyweight, for Jack's title.

Anderson and Cross.

"Bud" Anderson, the Vancouver lightweight, will find out on New Year's afternoon whether his knockout by Leach Cross, July 4 last, was an accident or not. "Bud" is to meet his Leachlets again in Los Angeles over the marathon route, and he feels sure that the New York dentist cannot repeat the trick. "Bud" may fool the wise ones, but just the same he will be fighting under a handicap, for that previous knockout will always be staring him in the face and he will have a him in the face and he will have a bit more regard for Leachie than he would have if such a thing had never occurred. It is seldom that fighters turn the tables on the boys who have handed them the O. K.

turn the tables on the boys who have handed them the O. K.

After many sleepless nights and considerable expense, Promoter Jim Coffroth of San Francisco has succeeded in rematching Willie Ritchie and "Harlem" Tommy Murphy for January 23, the bout for December 10 having been called off because of a slight operation on Willie's nose. The weight will be the same—135 pounds one hour before ring time—which means that they will not battle at the American lightweight limit, which is 133 pounds ringside.

Perhaps Ritchie intends to try to raise the limit to 135 pounds, which would harmonize with the weight for that class in all parts of the world where boxing holds forth, except that in most countries the weighing in time is at 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the day of battle. The weight has been at 133 pounds since Jack McAuliffe won the title back in the '80's.

Dillon vs. Clabby.

Dillon vs. Clabby.

Dillon vs. Clabby.

There is a possibility that Jimmy Clabby and Jack Dillon will be matched around the first of the year for a ten-round bout at the middle weight limit of 158 pounds at 3 o clock. Clabby has been holding out for 158 four hours before the contest, but Dillon has been eager to make the weight 160 pounds. However, Dillon's manager, Jimmy Walters, says he will agree to the 158 notch if the clubs will make it an object for him to train off an extra pound or two.

At the real middleweight limit these boys would put up a great battle, but with Dillon weighing over the 160-pound mark, the clever Hammond youth would be giving away too much, as he can easily strip at 152 pounds and be at his best. It would be a real middleweight battle and would do a lot to clear up the title question, for these to clear up the title question, for these two are without doubt among the best of that weight in the world today, with McGoorty, Klaus and Chip following.

Coulan Improved.

Clever little Johnny Coulon, who was on the sick list for several menths, will soon be back in harness again. The little fellow put in several menths in the Canadian woods and the roughing did him a world of good, building up his body in great shape and giving him the stamina that he so much needed. Johnny writes that he feels as strong as ever and that he will soon prove to the boxing fans that he as able to take care of all the challengers. He says that he considered "Kid" Williams the best of the bantanis and would give him a chance at the title just as soon as he rounds into proper shape, which he thinks will he in February or thereabouts. Johnny figures that he will not remain in the game nuch longer and he wants to make bay while the sun shines.

M'LOUGHLIN RANKS FIRST FOR TENNIS

California Heads Long List; Miss Mary Browne Leads Women Players.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Maurice E. Mc-Loughlin holds the place at the top of the national ranking of lawn tennia players for the season of 1913, which was issued here today. Miss Mary Browne is first in the list of women players in the singles, so both the highest honors the singles, so both the highest honors of the American couris go to Californians. In addition, McLoughlin and Thomas C. Bundy, another Californian, partners in the doubles elampionship, lead the doubles list.

The rankings for the year were issued by George T. A. Adee, the secretary of the national ranking committee, of which Miles S. Charicek was chairman and C. M. Bull, Jr., the third member. The women's list appears for the first time, it was originally prepared and submitted by Mrs. Barger Wallach, Miss Ellen L. Adee and Mrs. May Sutton-Bundy.

Williams In Second

Williams Is Second.

Williams Is Second.

In the list of the men's singles, McLoughlin, the national champlon and the here of the Davis cup matches, is followed by E. N. Williams, William J.
Clothier, the former national champlon, is third, a number above William M.
Johnston, the wonderful 17-year-old player from the Facilic coast. It is an unward move of one number for Clothier, end his slight advantage over the boy is accounted for by the fact that although Johnston won the historic Longwood cup at Boston and the New York state title, thus succeeding to McLoughlin's laurels, he falled to make a good showing at Southampton and at the All-Comers at Newport.

The placing of Wallace Johnson at No.
I caused some surprise, as he was a member of the Davis cup team. Still the committee made the statement that any competitions in this country are to be counted in the ratings, and the showing of the Philadelphian was therefore not up to his work of a year ago, when he came so near beating McLoughlin for the national title.

Passing of Veterans.

Passing of Veterans.

The drop by T. C. Bundy, Carl Behr and R. D. Lattle from the first ten marks the passing of veterans in the same of william A. Larned last season marked the passing of one of the greatest rames in American lawn tennis history.

Twenty pairs have been rated in the doubles for the first time. McLoughlin and Bundy, as the leaders, are followed by the young California pair, Stracken and Griffin, who were their challengers for the national championship. In submitting the doubles the ranking committee makes the statement that it would have given McLoughlin and Harold H. Hackett the Davis cup pair, a very high record, but for the fact that the pair did not take part in any tournament in this country!
